2D SESSION

H. R. 7461

To amend the Higher Education Act of 1965 to clarify competency-based education.

---

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

APRIL 7, 2022

Mr. GROTHMAN (for himself, Mr. OWENS, Mr. KELLER, Mr. TIFFANY, and Mr. STEIL) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Education and Labor

---

A BILL

To amend the Higher Education Act of 1965 to clarify competency-based education.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “Competency-Based 5       Education Act of 2022” or the “CBE Act of 2022”.

6 SEC. 2. REGULATORY RELIEF.

7       Beginning on the date of the enactment of this Act—8              (1) the definition of the term “credit hour” in 9       section 600.2 of title 34, Code of Federal Regula-

1       tions (as in effect on the day before such date of en-2       actment) shall have no force or effect;

3               (2) for purposes of the Higher Education Act
4       of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 1001 et seq), the term “credit 5       hour” shall have the meaning given that term by the 6       Department of Education in regulation before the 7       effective date of the regulations published by the De-8       partment of Education in the Federal Register on 9       October 29, 2010 (75 Fed. Reg. 66946); and 10              (3) the Secretary of Education may not promul-

11       gate or enforce any additional regulations or rules 12       with respect to the definition of the term “credit 13       hour” for any purpose under the Higher Education 14       Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 1001 et seq.).

15 SEC. 3. DEFINITIONS.

16       Section 103 of the Higher Education Act of 1965 (20 17       U.S.C. 1003) is amended by adding at the end the fol-18       lowing:

19              “(25) COMPETENCY-BASED EDUCATION; COM-
20       PETENCY-BASED EDUCATION PROGRAM.—

21              “(A) COMPETENCY-BASED EDUCATION.—
22       Except as otherwise provided, the term ‘com-
23       petency-based education’ means education 24       that—

1                         “(i) measures academic progress and 2                         attainment—

3                             “(I) by direct assessment of a 4                         student’s level of mastery of com-
5                         petencies;

6                             “(II) by expressing a student’s 7                         level of mastery of competencies in 8                         terms of equivalent credit or clock 9                         hours; or

10                          “(III) by a combination of the 11                         methods described in subclauses (I) or 12                         (II) and credit or clock hours; and 13                          “(ii) provides the educational content, 14                         activities, and resources, including sub-15                         stantive instructional interaction, including 16                         by faculty, and regular support by the in-17                         stitution, necessary to enable students to 18                         learn or develop what is required to dem-19                         onstrate and attain mastery of such com-

20                         petencies, as assessed by the accrediting 21                         agency or association of the institution of 22                         higher education.

23                          “(B) COMPETENCY-BASED EDUCATION 24                         PROGRAM.—Except as otherwise provided, the 25                         term ‘competency-based education program’

1 means a postsecondary program offered by an 2 institution of higher education that—

3 “(i) provides competency-based edu-
4 cation, which upon a student’s demonstra-
5 tion or mastery of a set of competencies
6 identified and required by the institution,
7 leads to or results in the award of a certifi-
8 cate, degree, or other recognized edu-
9 cational credential;

10 “(ii) ensures title IV funds may be 11 used only for learning that results from in-12 struction provided, or overseen, by the in-13 stitution, not for the portion of the pro-
14 gram of which the student has dem-15 onstrated mastery prior to enrollment in 16 the program or tests of learning that are 17 not associated with educational activities 18 overseen by the institution; and 19 “(iii) is organized in such a manner 20 that an institution can determine, based on 21 the method of measurement selected by the 22 institution under subparagraph (A)(i),

23 what constitutes a full-time, three-quarter
24 time, half-time, and less than half-time 25 workload for the purposes of awarding and

1           administering assistance under title IV of 2           this Act, or assistance provided under an-3           other provision of Federal law to attend an 4           institution of higher education.

5           “(C) COMPETENCY DEFINED.—In this 6           paragraph, the term ‘competency’ means the 7           knowledge, skill, or ability demonstrated by a 8           student in a subject area.”.

9 SEC. 4. GENERAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO STUDENT AS- 10           SISTANCE.

11           (a) DEFINITIONS OF ACADEMIC YEAR AND ELIGIBLE 12 PROGRAM.—Section 481 of the Higher Education Act of 13 1965 (20 U.S.C. 1088) is amended—

14           (1) in subsection (a), by adding at the end the 15           following:

16           “(3)(A) For the purpose of a competency-based edu-17 cation program the term ‘academic year’ shall be the pub-18 lished measured period established by the institution of 19 higher education that is necessary for a student with a 20 normal full-time workload for the course of study the stu-
21 dent is pursuing (as measured using the value of com-22 petencies or sets of competencies required by such institu-
23 tion and approved by such institution’s accrediting agency 24 or association) to earn—

25           “(i) one-quarter of a bachelor’s degree;

1           “(ii) one-half of an associate’s degree; or 2           “(iii) with respect to a non-degree or graduate 3           program, the equivalent of a period described in 4           clause (i) or (ii).

5           “(B)(i) A competency-based education program that 6           is not a term-based program may be treated as a term-
7           based program for purposes of establishing payment peri-8           ods for disbursement of loans and grants under this title 9           if—

10           “(I) the institution of higher education that of-11           fers such program charges a flat subscription fee for 12           access to instruction during a period determined by 13           the institution; and 14           “(II) the institution is able to determine the 15           competencies a student is expected to demonstrate 16           for such subscription period.

17           “(ii) Clause (i) shall apply even in a case in which 18           instruction or other work with respect to a competency 19           that is expected to be attributable to a subscription period 20           begins prior to such subscription period.

21           “(iii) In a case in which a competency-based edu-22           cation program offered by an institution of higher edu-
23           cation is treated as a term-based program under clause 24           (i), the institution shall review the academic progress of 25           each student enrolled in such program in accordance with

1 section 484(c), except that such review shall occur at the 2 end of each payment period.”; and

3                   (2) in subsection (b), by striking paragraph (4) 4                   and inserting the following:

5                   “(4) For purposes of this title, the term ‘eligible pro-6 gram’ includes a competency-based program that—

7                   “(A) has been evaluated and approved by an ac-8 crediting agency or association that—

9                   “(i) is recognized by the Secretary under 10                   subpart 2 of part H; and 11                   “(ii) has evaluation of competency-based 12                   education programs within the scope of its rec-13                   ognition in accordance with section 14                   496(a)(4)(C); or

15                   “(B) as of the day before the date of enactment 16                   of the CBE Act of 2022, met the requirements of 17                   a direct assessment program under section 18                   481(b)(4) (as such section was in effect on the day 19                   before such date of enactment).”.

20                   (b) STUDENT ELIGIBILITY.—Section 484 of the 21                   Higher Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 1091) is 22                   amended—

23                   (1) in subsection (b), by adding at the end the 24                   following:

1       “(6) For purposes of competency-based education, in 2 order to be eligible to receive any loan under this title for 3 an award year, a student may be enrolled in coursework
4 attributable only to 2 academic years within the award 5 year.”; and

6              (2) in subsection (c)—

7                  (A) in paragraph (1)—

8                      (i) in subparagraph (B)—

9                              (I) by striking “the student has a 10                              cumulative” and inserting the fol-11                              lowing: “the student has—”

12                              “(i) a cumulative;”;

13                              (II) by striking “the second” and 14                              inserting “each”;

15                              (III) by striking the period at the 16                              end and inserting “; or”; and

17                              (IV) by adding at the end the fol-
18                              lowing:

19                              “(ii) for the purposes of competency-based 20                              programs, a non-grade equivalent demonstra-21                              tion of academic standing consistent with the 22                              requirements for graduation, as determined by 23                              the institution, at the end of each such aca-24                              demic year; and”; and

(ii) by adding at the end the following:

3               “(C) the student maintains a pace in his or her 4 educational program that—

5                   “(i) ensures that the student completes the 6                   program within the maximum timeframe; and 7               “(ii) is measured by a method determined 8               by the institution which may be based on credit 9               hours, clock hours, or competencies com-10              pleted.”;

(C) by adding at the end the following:

14       “(4) For purposes of this subsection, the term ‘max-15 imum timeframe’ means—

16           “(A) with respect to an undergraduate program
17        measured in credit hours, a period that is no longer
18        than 150 percent of the published length of the edu-
19        cational program, as measured in credit hours;

20           “(B) with respect to an undergraduate program
21         measured in competencies, a period that is no longer
22         than 150 percent of the published length of the edu-
23         cational program, as measured in competencies;

24               “(C) with respect to an undergraduate program
25               measured in clock hours, a period that is no longer

1 than 150 percent of the published length of the educational program, as measured by the cumulative 2 number of clock hours the student is required to 3 complete and expressed in calendar time; and

5                 “(D) with respect to a graduate program, a period defined by the institution that is based on the 6 length of the educational program.”.

8                 (c) RECOGNITION OF ACCREDITING AGENCY OR AS-9 SOCIATION.—Section 496 of the Higher Education Act of 10 1965 (20 U.S.C. 1099b) is amended—

11                 (1) in subsection (a)(4)—

12                         (A) in subparagraph (A), by striking 13                         “and” at the end; and

14                         (B) by striking subparagraph (B) and inserting the following:

16                         “(B) such agency or association demonstrates 17                         the ability to review, evaluate, and assess the quality 18                         of any instruction delivery model or method such 19                         agency or association has or seeks to include within 20                         its scope of recognition, without giving preference to 21                         or differentially treating a particular instruction de-22                         livery model or method offered by an institution of 23                         higher education or program except that, in a case 24                         in which the instruction delivery model allows for the 25                         separation of the student from the instructor—

1                 “(i) the agency or association requires the 2 institution to have processes through which the 3 institution establishes that the student who reg-
4 isters in a course or program is the same stu-
5 dent who participates in, including, to the ex-
6 tent practicable, testing or other assessment, 7 and completes the program and receives the 8 academic credit; and

9                 “(ii) the agency or association requires 10 that any process used by an institution to com-11 ply with the requirement under clause (i) does 12 not infringe upon student privacy and is imple-
13 mented in a manner that is minimally burden-14 some to the student; and

15                 “(C) if such an agency or association evaluates 16 or assesses the quality of competency-based edu-
17 cation programs, the agency’s or association’s eval-
18 uation or assessment—

19                 “(i) shall address effectively the quality of 20 an institution’s competency-based education 21 programs as set forth in paragraph (5), except 22 that the agency or association is not required to 23 have separate standards, procedures, or policies
24 for the evaluation of competency-based edu-
25 cation;

1               “(ii) shall establish whether an institution 2               has demonstrated that its program satisfies the 3               definitions in section 103(25); and

4               “(iii) shall establish whether an institution 5               has demonstrated that it has defined an aca-6               demic year for a competency-based program in 7               accordance with section 481(a)(3).”;

8               (2) in subsection (c)(1), by inserting “or com-9               petency-based education” after “distance education”;

10               (3) in subsection (n)(3), by inserting “, or com-11               petency-based education programs,” after each oc-12               currence of “distance education courses or pro-13               grams”; and

14               (4) by adding at the end the following:

15               “(r) WAIVER.—The Secretary shall establish a proc-16               ess through which an agency or association may seek to 17               have a requirement of this subpart waived, if such agency 18               or association—

19               “(1) demonstrates that such waiver is necessary
20               to enable an institution of higher education or pro-21               gram accredited by the agency or association to im-22               plement innovative practices intended to—

23               “(A) reduce administrative burdens to the 24               institution or program without creating costs 25               for the taxpayer; or

1               “(B) improve the delivery of services to 2               students, improve instruction or learning out-3               comes, or otherwise benefit students; and 4               “(2) describes the terms and conditions that 5               will be placed upon the program or institution to en-6               sure academic integrity and quality.”.
